TRUE BILL IS REFUSED

The Goldfield grand jury has refused to find a true bill against the Pittsburgh Silver Peak Mining company on a charge of having brought men into the state to work at the mines at Blair by deceiving them as to conditions here in labor matters. This ends the case.

COAL RATES REDUCED $5 A TON
IF ORDER OF NEVADA COMMISSION
IS ACCEPTED BY THE RAILROADS

Coal may be delivered in Tonopah at $5 less than it costs now if the action of the state board of railroad commissioners meets with the approval of the several railroads operating in this state. If the new rates are not acceptable to the carriers they will be haled before the interstate commerce commission and forced to explain why they insist on collecting $9 a ton for hauling coal from Wyoming and Utah.

J. F. Shaughnessy, president of the Nevada commission, says the facts have been carefully considered, and if the case is appealed, the railroads will not have a leg to stand upon. The only gain will be in delaying enforcement of the order.

The proceeding is that provided by law. If the railroads refuse to comply, the state commission expects to send a copy of the letter to the interstate commerce commission and have a hearing held for the purpose of securing the freight reduction if possible.

Beginning with Tecoma station, Nevada, on the Southern Pacific line, which is 304 miles this side of Rock Springs, Wyoming, the railroad commission asks that the freight rate on coal be reduced from $4.40 to $3.50 per ton.

Beginning with Imlay and continuing through Lovelock and Hazen to Reno, a reduction from $5 to $4 per ton is requested. Reno is 723 miles along the line.

Other reductions requested follow:
Verdi, $5.15 to $4; Fallon, $5.50 to $4; Wabuska, $6 to $5; Mound House, $6 to $4; Thorne and Mina, $7 to $4; Tonopah and Goldfield, $9 to $4.

The freight rate to Portland, Oregon, 991 miles from the center of distribution, is shown to be but $4 per ton. Rates to California points much farther from Rock Springs than Portland are quoted which range between $5.15 and $7.65.

On the Salt Lake route, the following reductions are requested in coal freight rates:
Callente and Pioche, $4.50 to $3.50; Stine, $5.30 to $3.50; St. George, Moapa, Las Vegas, $6.15 to $3.50; Rhyolite, Goldfield, Tonopah, $9 to $4.

Calvada, on state line, $6.15 to $4.

On this railroad line it is shown that the rate from Rock Springs to San Bernardino, Cal., is $6.15, while it is but $4 to points a similar distance in other directions from Rock Springs. The Los Angeles and San Pedro rates are $5.15 per ton.

In addition to the comparisons stated, it is shown that coal is moved from Wyoming to Butte and Anaconda, Montana, 530 miles, for but $3.25 per ton. Also that coal is moved from Rock Springs, Wyoming to Omaha, 812 miles, for $3.50 per ton and to Spokane, 1059 miles, for $4 per ton.

COURT WILL NOT ALLOW EVIDENCE TO PASS OUT OF ITS CUSTODY

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 12.—Judge Anderson overruled two motions for the defense in the hearing of the dynamite cases. The first was that the defense be allowed to inspect in advance exhibits in evidence for the government. The second asked the government to return to the ironworkers documents, letters and papers seized last year which the prosecution did not intend to use during this trial.

R. J. Rutherford, an Omaha hotel clerk, testified that McManigal was there in 1910. Other hotel men through registers traced McManigal, Hockin and Jim McNamara to Toledo, Cincinnati, Utica and elsewhere.
